DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the description is replete with misdescriptive terms, incorrect grammar usage, etc. Certain terms used throughout the specification and claims should be corrected, e.g. "breadth(s)" to --surface(s)--, "winded" should be --wound--, "round(s)" should be --turn(s)--, etc. Furthermore, page 1, line 6, ". More" should be --, more--; page 1, line 8, "force accepted" should be --a pulling force--; page 1, line 9, "is not resulted" should be --does not result--; page 1, line 10, "damages of" should be --damage to--, etc. Applicant should peruse the specification and correct any deficiencies of which he may become aware.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1, line 3, "elastic rotations" and "flexibly connected" are misdescriptive. It should be specified that the "turning wheel" is biased in a retraction direction. Also in line 9, "flexibly fastened" is unclear. Line 12 of claim 1, "aperture" should be --apertures; line 20, "released" should be --withdrawn--; line 21, "having reached outer dead centers" should be --their fully withdrawn lengths" to be accurate.

Claim 2 appears to conflict with claim 1 since claim 1 states that the left wire has at least one turn left when the wires are fully withdrawn whereas claim 2 states the opposite—i.e. that the right wire has at least one turn remaining. Claim 2 further uses terms that are inaccurate for the same reasons as in claim 1 above.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Liao and Wei are cited to show wire winding devices similar to applicant's.
